Freedom of Information Response: safety cameras in the ACT

The following table lists data pertaining to fixed speed/red light cameras in the ACT. It details the camera type, the location of each camera, the type of infringement, the number of infringement notices issued from each camera and the total revenue attributed to each camera.

The data is listed by year, with the cameras ordered highest to lowest according to the number of infringements.

Note that when two locations are listed for the same type of camera in the same year, the cameras are operating in different directions (eg. one north and the other south).
